

Name: _____

Finley the Fairy

DIRECTIONS: Your teacher is going to read Finley the Fairy to you without showing you the illustrations. Your task is to close your eyes and imagine each scene unfolding as it is read aloud. When your teacher is done reading, you will draw one scene that best sticks out in your mind. Use as much as detail as possible.

You will be able to see the original illustrations to compare your interpretation.

